A New Year

The beginning of a new year has been always for me an opportunity for a spiritual quest, or the beginning of another quest. In a world where the light seems to be growing dim, is there something or someone that would give me a better vision?

Our vision of life and the world affects our being as much as our well-being. It is important to us that we have a clear vision of the world and ourselves.

I found this one-time life story from David Adam in his small book, "The Eye of The Eagle".

Meditations on the hymn 'Be thou my vision', very inspiring. This is what he wrote:

"I once worked in a coal mine deep in the Northumbrian earth. It had a strange atmosphere all of its own. But the most awe-inspiring thing was the darkness. It was so dark when you turned your lamp off that you could not see your hand in front of your face. For a while in the area I worked, there was no light at all except from the lamp fastened to my helmet. One day, while working on my own, I knocked the lamp hard against a stone and it went out. I was in total darkness with moving machine nearby. I hardly dared to move, only slightly backwards to the rough-hewn wall. It would have been easy to panic – or just to scream out – but I knew that very soon some fellow-workers would arrive. They would have lights and they would ensure that I was not left in the dark. I waited for what seemed an age – it was probably hardly five minutes. Then a light appeared. At first it was small and far away, like a pinprick in the dark. But I knew it was coming in my direction. In fact, I could see three lights coming towards me. Soon my companions were attending to me, and in fact got the second bulb on my lamp working again.

It was not long after this, at New Year, that I heard for the first time:

I said to the man who stood at the gate of the year: 'Give me a light that I may tread safely into the unknown.' And he replied: 'Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of God. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way.'"

As we begin the New Year, let each one of us pray: 'Be thou my vision, O Lord.'

Sincere thanks to The Friends of the Shrine of Blessed Dominic for the incredible hospitality they gave to our pilgrims during the Jubilee Year. It was a success. I thank God for their dedication and commitment. May God bless them.
